Bureau for Democracy, Conflict and Humanitarian Assistance (DCHA)	Leigh Carlson	Active Communities - Effective States (ACES)	The purpose of this award is to provide technical services and goods to advance accountable governance in host countries. This award is designed to foster greater accountability of institutions and leaders to citizens and to the law by strengthening linkages among government actors and enhancing state institutions accountability to citizens. The activities implemented under this award will contribute directly to the achievement of the overarching goal of USAID's DRG strategy, to "support the establishment and consolidation of inclusive and accountable democracies to advance freedom and development," particularly DO 2, "Foster greater accountability of institutions and leaders to citizens and to the law." This award is envisioned as a follow-on to other mechanisms including the Encouraging Global Anti-corruption and Good Governance (ENGAGE) IQC, which also covers a range of activities, in areas including anti-corruption, transparency, integrity and accountability. It will enable Missions which issue sub-awards under it to select from a range of programming options. In addition, the award will enable USAID and the U.S. Government (USG) to respond rapidly to windows of opportunity for governance in countries undergoing transition.
